

ACADEMY MILITARY TRAINING (AMT) LEADER AND LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT CERTIFICATE

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

In a partnership with the United States Air Force Academy (USAFA) the Department of Counseling and Human Services offers a specialized undergraduate Leader and Leadership Development Certificate. The certificate is offered to selected Academy Military Training (AMT) Non-Commissioned Officers (NCO) at USAFA. The Leader and Leadership Development Program is an executive education program to support USAFA's AMTs as they prepare to educate, train, and inspire USAFA Cadets, as well as, to prepare the AMTs to excel as NCOs and Senior Non-Commissioned Officers (SNCO) at the tactical, operational, and strategic levels of the Air Force. This unique program was identified through the existing partnership with USAFA and to expand the training to non-commissioned officers. The certification links to the DCHS mission of service in this specialized educational area with USAFA as evidenced by the long-standing relationship created by the Air Force Officer Commanding Program.

This 15 credit-hour intensive certificate program facilitates leader development skills, enhances critical thinking, strengthens interpersonal effectiveness, broadens perspectives on coaching, mentoring, and leadership theory, develops influencing skills, facilitates cultural awareness, and improves the student's ability to lead change and development among cadets.
